Faith Seekers Stripped Naked In The Eyes Of God Faith Index Peels Away Inhibitions

New York, NY (PRWEB) – May 5, 2005 – Glorious the Magic Genie has created a free Faith Index that shows people how to peel away years of feeling insecure about how much faith they really have by using their imagination, and concentrating on their true inner feelings. Wouldn't everyone like to learn how to build their faith? The first step is to discover how much faith one has by checking out the Faith Index at www.fait123.com.

Glorious's Faith Index consists of ten simple multiple-choice questions. People can check them out to find out how much faith they have. A score of 100 is perfect. No one is perfect except God. A score of 70 or more indicates a person of faith. A score of 50 to 70 means more faith is needed. A score of less than 50 means lots more faith is needed. People can take the Faith Index quiz to find out where they stand. Everyone taking the Faith Index quiz is entitled to a free faith-based Magic Pill, and a free membership in the Faith Builders Club which offers them 'little leaps' or Magical keys to finding their faith. Stop being inhibited and learn to express true feelings of faith. Take a 'little leap' of faith and check out The Faith Index. It can help people discover that they are entitled to be people of faith.

We are all naked in the eyes of God. New Faith Index strips people of their inhibitions. Glorious the Magic Genie has invented a Faith Index to show people how much faith they have. This simple ten question, multiple-choice quiz can help people find more faith, and can be used with a free faith-based Magic Pill to help people learn how to build their faith. Take the quiz at www.fait123.com. Join the free Faith Builders Club and discover the 'little leaps' or Magical keys that can help people find their faith.
